Twenty-Third Psalms

The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amen

Emma M. "Bet" Lincoln

I came, I stayed, I worked, I served,
I loved with a heart's strong will.
I wanted to serve both God and man and I tried my task to fulfill.
If I have failed in my earthly work,
My Father will understand.
My friends and relatives, I ask to look and see...
That I wanted God's Love to show in me.
